

RFP School Cancellation / Refund Policy

Cancelation Policy:

When enrolling in the school, a $300 non-refundable deposit for first time RFP participants and $750 tuition for repeating participants is due at time of enrolling. If you decide you wish to enroll in an RFP school different from the one you originally enrolled for, the $300 deposit or $750 tuition can be transferred to any RFP school within 13 months of the original school. After 13 months, or if you notify us of a change less than seven days from the start of the school, the total deposit/tuition is forfeited. The balance of the tuition is due 2 weeks prior to the start of the school. If a school is full with a waiting list, and you fail to let us know you will not be attending at least 7-days before the start of the school, 50% of the total tuition will be forfeited for first-time participants and 100% of the tuition for repeat participants will be forfeited.

If, during the 13 month transfer period, tuition for the school increases before you re-enroll in the school you will be billed for the difference between what you paid and the new tuition. If you don't want to pay the higher tuition, all but the deposit will be refunded.

Refund Policy:

RMC offers a money-back guarantee for the Ranching For Profit School. If someone attending the school is dissatisfied with the value, they can receive a full refund, including their deposit. To receive the refund they must:

1. Make the request within 6 days after the last day of the school.
2. Have attended at least the first 5 days of the school.
3. Have expressed dissatisfaction to the instructor at the school.
4. Communicate to RMC in writing why they believe the school failed to deliver value.

RFP instructors have the authority to expel students who interfere with the learning of others. Expelled students will have their tuition refunded minus the $300 deposit.
